? Weekly Puzzle ?

What comes once in a minute, twice in a moment, but never in a thousand years?

Last week's winner: Well done Sayge! The answer was cutlery, or plates

Dear Parents and Community Members,

Let me start this week by once again saying a huge THANK YOU to everyone who contributed to the surprise birthday party on Monday of this week. The kids completely pulled the wool over my eyes and I had no idea at all what they were up to. I am really very touched indeed to have been surprised like that. What a lovely way to start this week!

Last week the grade 3 – 6 children had a skype session with some of the Bulldogs players as part of the Bulldogs Read program. The session went really well and the kids enjoyed themselves.

Unfortunately I was sick with a really bad cold last week so I missed a lot of the week for that reason. I know that we have had a fair number of kids away sick too – hopefully we are all over the worst of it now.

On Monday of this week we had a young lady come to visit us called Grace Taylor. Grace is a student teacher at ACU who is looking to get some experience by volunteering in our school. Grace is a very nice young lady who impressed the staff when she came to visit this week, and she will be here on a Friday morning from next week, helping out. Please feel free to say hello if you see her around.

I am writing this newsletter on Wednesday this week since we will be out in Bacchus Marsh on Friday. This morning we have been to Sovereign Hill panning for gold and trying out the shops up the main street. It was a really great morning and I hated to have to come back here to sit in the office typing!! Lots of us managed to find some gold this morning which was very exciting and the raspberry drops are always amazing. I'm told that the kids had a good time this afternoon completing their book week activities and dressing up in period costumes!

On Friday we will have been out to Bacchus Marsh for Kids Day Out. The children have been practising hard and are going to do a great job with their performance. I am looking forward to helping them with it on the day.

Sadly, a notice for all those who requested tickets for the Bulldogs game at Mars stadium this weekend. Apparently the AFL have decided that this weekend's match is now more of a decider than it was expected to be originally. Because of this they are no longer offering free tickets to our community. I really do apologise to all affected community members, but we have no control over this decision. I think it's a really poor way to treat people, but have still got to pass on the bad news. I grabbed this from their Facebook page: "Ballarat is officially a sell out! No further tickets will be released for sale & no general admission membership scans will be available."

Next week is a hot lunch week – get your orders in ASAP. Also, Father's day is coming soon so don't forget your Father's day stall notes!

*Have a great weekend,
Arthur Lane*
